Plans for wider coverage with the 1954 Easter Seal sale to finance an expanded service program were discussed at the November meeting of the board of directors of the Adams County Crippled Children's Society Wednesday afternoon.

Seal Sale Chairman Russell Hackman said at least 6,000 letters will be mailed in this county carrying seals that are expected to bring in funds to carry on regular services of the society and finance physical therapy care for indigent crippled children and adults here for the first time in history. Last year 4,900 seal letters were mailed in the county.

President Walter R. Doud and members of the society's board of directors discussed the society's role in the physical therapy program to be set up at the Warner Hospital February 1. No decisions were made but discussion indicated that the society hopes, within the limitations of its funds, to pay for physical therapy for crippled children who must be treated in their homes and do not have the funds to pay for the treatments.

Committees Reappointed
At the same meeting the society approved bills for shoes for crippled county boys and girls and for transportation to and from the Elizabeth-town Hospital for two crippled children. In two instances, parents made partial payments toward the cost of the expensive special shoes. There was approval, too, on a bill for transporting one of the crippled summer campers home from Camp Easter Seal.

Foot Of Snow Hits 2 States; Big Storm Is Heading East

DENVER (AP)—Snow piled up today as the Rocky Mountain region's first major storm of the season slowly edged eastward. Glassy streets and highways slowed motor traffic to a crawl over parts of half a dozen states but no major accidents were reported.

The only loss of life was in a plane crash at Albuquerque, where one man died and seven were injured yesterday. Their C47 transport cracked up while taking off from Kirtland Air Force Base in blinding snow.

Nearly a foot of snow covered parts of Colorado and Wyoming, and it still was falling this morning in all but the northern half of Wyoming. Montana, which received its snow a day earlier, was gripped by bitter cold. The temperature dipped to 2 below zero at Butte.

DEAN TILBERG GIVES LINCOLN TALK AT HOTEL

More than 50 persons attending the annual Lincoln Fellowship luncheon at noon today in the Hotel Gettysburg heard Dean W. E. Tilberg, Gettysburg College, trace the life of Abraham Lincoln "who without special training became a wise and trusted statesman and guided his nation through to victory at the time of its greatest crises."

Present at the luncheon was Governor Theodore R. McKeldin of Maryland, who later in the afternoon delivers the principal speech at the Gettysburg National Cemetery during services commemorating the 90th anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Dean Tilberg represented Dr. Walter C. Langsam, president of Gettysburg College, at the dinner. Dr. Langsam was suddenly called to Philadelphia on business Wednesday evening.

"Greatest American"

"The year 1809 is a very important year in the history of the world," Dr. Tilberg said as a preface to his remarks. "It was the birth year of two great masters of music, Chopin and Mendelssohn; of four poets of the first rank, Edgar Allan Poe, Edward Fitzgerald, Oliver Wendell Holmes and Alfred Tennyson; of the great scientist, Charles Darwin; of England's William Gladstone, and finally, in the tangled forest of Kentucky, on February 12, Abraham Lincoln was born."

"Despite the primitive conditions under which Abe Lincoln was born and reared, this man eventually became our greatest American," Dr. Tilberg said. "Lincoln ranked above Washington in the hearts and minds of the people; his Gettysburg Address is a world classic; in Washington, D. C. the City of Monuments to Great Americans, the Lincoln Memorial ranks as the best and Lincoln's spirit pervades the nation's capitol to a greater extent than any other man."

Commenting upon the life of Lincoln in its local significance, Dean Tilberg noted that "because of Abe Lincoln, Gettysburg has become a national shrine visited by thousands of people every year."

Embodied American Spirit
He added, "From the primitive circumstances of his birth, Lincoln became a thorough-going man of the people—no one understood them better. In the best sense of the term, he was probably our greatest politician. Without special qualification of voice and personality he became a speaker of rare ability; he became a man with a keen sense of (Continued on Page 2)

SAYS U. S. LEADS "FREE" WORLD

"Our country today is the leader of the free world's," Major General Clyde D. Eddleman, Washington, stated Wednesday afternoon as he addressed a combined group of Army Air Force ROTC students in the Gettysburg College chapel.

General Eddleman, who was introduced by Dr. Walter C. Langsam, college president, held a top command post during World War II and helped plan many of the military operations involving the New Guinea and Philippine campaigns. He is presently stationed in the Pentagon, Washington, D. C.

Drawing from personal experience, Eddleman told the prospective officers in his audience that he "considers the ROTC the backbone of our reserve system." He went on to point out several trouble spots in the world today including India-China, Trieste and Korea.

In closing, General Eddleman reminded the Gettysburg ROTC group, "the responsibility which you young men must shoulder is great," and noted that Gettysburg College has in the past made a fine contribution to the military strength of the nation through its graduates.

General Eddleman's talk was preceded by a short greeting from Major General Robert N. Young, Army operations officer.

WEAVER GUILTY ON TWO COUNTS; INNOCENT OF 3RD

Richard R. Weaver, Ridge Ave., McSherrystown, was found guilty at noon today by an Adams County jury of setting up a lottery and exposing or advertising a lottery in connection with two "fish bowls" found September 1 in the McSherrystown Moose lodge, of which Weaver is secretary and house manager.

At the same time the jury found him innocent of a charge of setting up gambling devices, with the jury deciding that a console type slot machine, which would not pay off, was not a gambling device.

R. A. Demonstrates

The jury had had a demonstration of the "non-paying" qualities of the machine Wednesday afternoon when District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter, with the jury gathered about him, put a nickel in the slot, pulled the handle and won a number of free games on the machine.

Judge W. C. Sheely in his charge to the jury this morning said that for gambling to be gambling in the eyes of the law it must involve payment for a chance, selection of a winner by chance, and payment of an award of some value to the winner. Free plays on a machine are not considered as having an intrinsic value, the court said.

In testimony Wednesday afternoon Cpl. Frank Yercavage said that machines such as the console type slot machine, which had a metal plate over its payoff slots, can be made to pay off by arrangement with a bartender or other caretaker who would give the actual winnings in cash when the machine gave free games. At the time the officers were at the Moose they testified the machine was not connected to an electrical outlet, nor was there anyone in the barroom other than Weaver and State Liquor Control Board Agent Bertram Berg who called police in the first place. The officers said they had never seen anyone playing the machine, nor any payoff made. Weaver said the machine had been brought to the club only five days before the raid on September 1.

Fish Bowls Never Used

The machine had been brought into the Moose over his objections, Weaver told the jury, and he had not had it in use at any time. He originally objected to the machine because he feared it would constitute a gambling machine, "and by the time I found out that it was perfectly legal, the officers arrived and it never got into use."

In making his charge, Judge Sheely told the jury that there are some articles that in themselves are evidences of gambling and illegal, such as "one-arm-bandit slot machines." There are other devices that are not necessarily for gambling but can be used for gambling. Even a baseball game or other game can be used for gambling purposes by people who want to gamble, but they are not gambling devices in themselves.

Weaver told the jury that the two "fish bowls," complete with numbered tickets in them, and with printed matter on the front of the bowls saying chances were 5 cents each, and paid off so much money (Continued on Page 2)

BIGLERVILLE HI BAND GUESTS AT FOOTBALL GAME

On Friday afternoon the band will appear on a one-hour television show over station WHP-TV, Channel 55, in Harrisburg, from 4:30 until 5:30 o'clock. TWO SCHOOLS TOPRESENTPLAY SUNDAY NIGHT

Melpothalians, Saint Joseph College Dramatic Club, assisted by Mount St. Mary's players, will present "Our Town" in DePaul Auditorium, Emmitsburg, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This Pulitzer Prize winning play by Thornton Wilder will be under the direction of Donald J. Waters, M.F.A.

Staging is unrealistic, using the style of free staging which has been termed "constructivism." Wilder has adapted this style by removing the "props" and by creating the atmosphere of rehearsal rather than performance so that the audience will focus attention on the action of the play.

New Hampshire village life, with its humor and pathos, is depicted to the playwright this town symbolizes America and perhaps the entire world. His theme is the fact that people do not appreciate life while they are living it. The unique presentation features a stage manager who introduces the characters. The play features make-shift props, and pre-arranged audience participation.

WICKS RESIGNS NEW YORK POST AS GOP LEADER

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Sen. Arthur H. Wicks formally stepped down today as acting lieutenant governor of New York after a bitter quarrel with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey ending in victory claims by both camps.

Wicks submitted his resignation yesterday as GOP majority leader and temporary president of the State Senate, through which he held the office of acting lieutenant governor. The action was announced minutes after Senate adjournment of a special session of the Legislature.

Dewey and the GOP state executive committee had insisted that Wicks, because of visits to labor extortionist Joseph S. Fay in Sing Sing prison, resign his leadership or be ousted at the special session.

Wicks maintained he had heard no word of censure from his fellow senators about his visits to Fay and claimed complete vindication. He said he resigned because his conflict with Dewey would impair state business.

Dewey Asked Resignation

But Dewey declared he had called for Wicks' resignation because of the Fay visits, and said "the resignation speaks for itself."

Sen. Walter Mahoney of Buffalo, who once differed with Dewey over the budget but since has returned to party regularity, was chosen majority leader to succeed Wicks. The office of temporary president will remain vacant until the legislature convenes again in January. Then Mahoney will be elected to the post.

Meanwhile Republican Oswald D. Heck of Schenectady, speaker of the Assembly, will act as governor if Dewey travels out of the state. The lieutenant governorship became vacant Sept. 30 when Frank C. Moore resigned to become head of a private foundation.

PRICE OF MILK CUSHION ASKED

UTICA, N. Y. (AP)—Spokesmen for 35,000 dairymen urge speedy approval of an amendment to the New York milk-pricing formula that would cushion them against losses resulting from a milk truckers strike last month in New York City.

John C. York, economist for the Eastern Milk Producers Co-operative Inc., and John B. Holloway, representative of about 79 co-operators, testified yesterday at a federal-state hearing.

They voiced support of a proposal by Dr. Anson J. Pollard, assistant administrator of the six-state New York milkshed, that the December price be figured as though use of Class A (fluid) milk had been normal during the six-day strike.

Pollard said the milkshed's 50,000 producers would lose $687,000 if the usual formula were followed. Pollard testified that the formula, unless amended by federal and state authorities, would reflect the loss of the fluid market during the strike in pricing of the next three years. He estimated the potential net loss for the period at $942,000.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal mediation conference on a threatened strike of 1,700 employees of Pennsylvania Greyhound Bus Co. has been postponed until tomorrow.

POLICE REPORT STRIKE FIGHT

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Columbus police last night reported a new short but violent scuffle at the struck North American Aviation, Inc., involving persons going to work at the Columbus jet plane plant and others.

The outbreak came shortly after company lawyers filed application asking Common Pleas Court to cite Local 927, CIO-United Auto Workers, for contempt on charges growing out of flake-ups Tuesday and yesterday.

Robert V. Catiano, 35, a non-striker, told police he found a bullet hole in the door of his car when he entered it in front of his Columbus home.

Another non-striker, Melvin Maybin, 30, of Columbus, said men stopped his car, ripped a mirror and chrome strip from it and battered it in a fender.

BOSTON U. PROF SUSPENDED FOR RED SPY WORK

BOSTON (AP)—Boston University has suspended indefinitely Prof. Maurice Halperin, head of its Latin-American studies department, who was named in a long-secret FBI report as a link in a Soviet espionage ring.

The 47-year-old Halperin, who was reprimanded by the school in June after he refused to answer questions before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, was suspended at noon yesterday until the trustees can "restudy" his case.

Halperin was not available for comment.

Worked For Reds

The FBI report, read to the committee by Atty. Gen. Brownell Tuesday, identified Halperin as one of those "who were participants in this (spy) operation or were utilized by principals in this ring for the purpose of obtaining data in which the Soviet is interested."

Another FBI report, portions of which were outlined by Brownell to the committee, named Halperin, then an official of the Office of Strategic Services, as "a member of the Communist party" who "passed on information to an espionage ring."

In his appearance before the subcommittee in Boston last March, Halperin refused to say if he had ever been a member of the Communist party. He claimed the protection of the Fifth Amendment.

for certain numbers, "had not been in use for more than a year." The "fish bowls" were located on several empty beer cases between the front and back bar of the lodge's basement bar. Weaver said they had been sitting there for possibly more than a year, but insisted they had never been used.

Drunken Driver Tried

The jury began deliberation on the case at 10 o'clock, following a half-hour charge by Judge Sheely. All other testimony and the arguments of the attorneys had been presented Wednesday afternoon.

The jury spent a little over two hours in reaching its verdict, returning to the court room with the decision at 12:05 o'clock this afternoon.

While the Weaver jury was deliberating, all testimony and arguments were taken in the charge of driving while under the influence brought against Clair H. McCann, 25, Gettysburg R. 3. Witnesses told of seeing his car weave on the road while driving through Fairfield on August 16. State Policeman John Creavey and Edwin Scott, called to the scene by persons who saw the driving, said they found McCann asleep in his car, parked on the Pumphrey Service Station lot near Fairfield. They said McCann was garbed only in his shorts and one stocking.

McCann said he had about three beers, had eaten some shrimp, became ill as he started to drive, pulled off the road at the station, removed his clothes and fell asleep. Dr. James Allison said he had pronounced McCann intoxicated when police brought McCann before him.

"THE MIRACLE"

As the door of death flung open . . . for the child to enter in . . . I could see a battle raging . . . and I knew not who would win . . . for the babe was weak and tired . . . with but hope within his eyes . . . and the world that turned around us . . . was engulfed in sordid skies . . . all was still except for ticking . . . of the stately mantel clock . . . but my heart beat like a hammer . . . making ready for a shock . . . as the seconds turned to minutes . . . and the minutes changed to hours . . . there were prayers to God in heaven . . . fading scent of gorgeous flowers . . . then like magic something happened . . . for the child began to smile . . . and a miracle transpired . . . because God thought it worthwhile.

into my life." He said his gift of his life savings was "unplanned." If anyone had told me a week before that I would give away all I had earned in a lifetime as a lawyer, I would have told them they were crazy.

"When I reached my decision and gave the money away I found that I was supremely happy. Why happy? That money would have provided me with an annual income of $16,000 for the rest of my life. It would have permitted me to remain a member of my club, continue to make trips to Europe and the West Indies, continue to buy show-off automobiles.

"God's Will On Earth"
"I had to reduce my scale of living, had to give up many of the pleasures that I had enjoyed for most of my life. Why should it make me happy? I had given until it hurt.

"But I had also found that you can give beyond the point where it hurts, you can give to the point where it makes you happy. I was happy because I had done what God wanted me to do with my life. For once I had actually carried through that part about doing God's will on earth.

"For I cannot be concealed about my gift. I didn't do it. I didn't plan it. God has a purpose for all creation. I am one of God's creatures and God has a purpose for my life. It was simply that I had cooperated with God's purpose for my life. There are two miracles in my life—first that I was able to make so much money and second that I gave it away. For years I had been wondering about what God's purpose might be for me. Then in a flash I realized what it was. He permitted me to make more money than I needed in order that I might give it away.

Gift Brought Joy
"It began when I set up the Emma Locke fund, named for my mother, to give an annual award at the University of Pittsburgh. When I saw the joy and pride on the face of the young lady who won the award and on the faces of her parents who had scrimped and saved to put her through college, I began to wonder. If giving away $100 per year can bring so much happiness, I wondered, then what would happen if I gave away all of my money. Then it came to me that that was the reason I had been created. And since I decided to follow God's will I have been happier than ever before in my life."

Next meeting of the bankers will be held December 16 at a place to be announced.

canvass. Refreshments will be served by the Ladies' Aid Society following the meeting.

Mrs. H. D. Hammer, a missionary on furlough from Argentina, will be the guest speaker at the annual thank-offering service in St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Sunday at 10:30 a.m. Arrangements are in charge of the Abigail Kammerer Missionary Society.

Mrs. Cole Chronister will be the leader for the topic discussion at the November meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Luke's Union Church, near White Hall, on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church.

Thank-offering Sunday
The annual thank-offering service will be held in St. Mary's Reformed Church, Silver Run, on Sunday at 10:30 a.m. in charge of the Women's Guild. There will be a guest speaker and special music. The Thank-offering committee includes Mrs. Alvin G. Dutterer Jr., Mrs. Emerson Muller, Mrs. Guy W. Wolf, Mrs. Herbert E. Myers and Mrs. Merwyn Dutterer.

The public is invited to attend a roast beef and pork with sauerkraut supper on Saturday afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock, in St. Aloysius parish hall. The supper is being sponsored by St. Aloysius Parish Council of Catholic Women, assisted by the Holy Name Society. A bazaar table and cake and candy stands will be conducted. A public party will be held that evening in the parish hall at 8 o'clock.

Members of the Littlestown Men's Chorus will have rehearsal at St. Paul's Church on Friday evening at 7 o'clock, prior to entertaining at the father and son banquet at Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns, that evening.

EXTENSION OF TAX DEADLINE IS CONSIDERED

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Revenue Department today explored the possibility of extending tomorrow's deadline for returns on the 1 per cent sales tax.

"With new tax laws there was usually been an extension of time," said Joseph C. Snyder, director of the Sales Tax Bureau. "We may do it on the sales tax but not until the last minute."

The extension possibility arose because only 16,000 returns were processed as of Monday. Some 180,000 retailers are expected to file returns.

"You can see that unless we get a huge influx of returns today and tomorrow there are going to be a lot of retailers who will not have met the deadline," he said. "The extension, however, will apply only to proven hardship cases."

Snyder recalled that an extension of 15 days was allowed when the corporate net income tax law went into effect.

Add More Employees
New employees continue to be added to the sales tax staff which Snyder estimated now totals 250. Thirty more will be hired this week.

Snyder said it would take "10 to 15 days" to process the returns and determine if a revenue estiman's request relieved him of the chairmanship of the Special Project Committee. Mrs. Elizabeth Pennington was appointed temporary chairman in his place.

The Easter Seal Committee for 1954 includes: Chairman Hackman, Dr. Frank Britcher, Miss Mildred Eden, Mrs. Pennington, Wilbur A. Bankert, Mrs. Margaret Bradford and Miss Bettie Livermore.

Gift For Kepner Fund
Miss Mildred Eden and Mrs. Joseph Bushey, state nurses, reported to the directors on needs of a number of children in the county for special shoes and the expenditures were authorized.

The report of Miss Elizabeth Evans, treasurer, included as a receipt item $32.18 received from the Upper Adams County Choral Society's Easter cantata. Miss Evans also reported a donation of $125 from the 40 and 8 Club to the Larry Kepner fund.

Her report showed the society recently paid $52.64 for the repair of the artificial legs used by Larry, now a first grade pupil at the High Street School building.

Mr. Hackman's Easter Seal committee was authorized to employ stenographic help to set up a card file on the annual mailing list for the Easter Seal sale and to address the 6,000 seal letters for 1954. The letters will be folded and "stuffed," by volunteer help.

Speech Defects Get Attention
The directors discussed a proposal that has been before them for some time with regard to providing help for county children with speech defects. The board was told there is now a teacher in Gettysburg with the necessary training. More information on the proposal is to be gathered by the Special Project Committee.

A Crippled Children's Society survey two years ago showed speech defects form the largest "unmet mate of 13 million dollars will be met at this time.

The sales tax chief also disclosed he will ask the 1955 Legislature to amend the sales tax law to provide for stiffer penalties for failure to file returns on time.

The present penalty is simply forfeiture of the 3 per cent commission which retailers can retain for their work in collecting the tax.

Snyder said he would likely ask that the sales tax penalties be patterned after the corporate income tax law which provides for a 10 per cent penalty, plus interest, for failure to file on time.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Thousands Participate in 70th Anniversary of Lincoln's Address Here: Sunday afternoon Gettysburg, for the nation, observed the 70th anniversary of the dedication of the Gettysburg National Cemetery, and the anniversary of the brief dedicatory talk, Lincoln's address.

The magnificent occasion attracted an audience of approximately 7,000 persons. The country heard every word of the stirring program through radio broadcasting.

A man who closely resembles Lincoln, Dr. Lincoln Caswell, famed impersonator, recited Lincoln's famous words.

The procession included members of the Grand Army of the Republic, Gettysburg High School band, members of the Motor Repair Section, Gettysburg unit of the Pennsylvania National Guard, Spanish American War veterans, speakers and guests of honor, Sons of Union Veterans of York, Philadelphia and Gettysburg, Hanover Legion and its drum corps, Steelton's drum corps, members of the Albert J. Lentz post, the American Legion and Legionnaires of Waynesboro, York and Harrisburg and the local drum corps, Hummelstown Legion and drum corps, Gettysburg College ROTC unit, Union Encampment, Gettysburg lodge of Odd Fellows, Boy Scouts and members of the local Civilian Conservation Corps camps.

The Rev. Frederick B. Crane gave the prayer, Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, chairman of the local committee on arrangements, delivered an address.

Four famous grandsons were present. They were: Robert Lincoln Beckwith, grandson of the martyred Lincoln; George Gordon Meade, grandson of General George Gordon Meade; Colonel Ulysses S. Grant, grandson of General and President U. S. Grant; Dr. George Bolling Lee, grandson of General Robert E. Lee.

Colonel U. S. Grant delivered the principal address of the day. Dr. John Aberly delivered the benediction.

Whisler, York, were married Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The ceremony was performed in St. Peter's Lutheran Church, York, by the pastor, the Rev. Ralph R. Gresh, assisted by the Rev. D. S. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Littlestown.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and had for her maid of honor, Miss Miriam D. Whisler. The flower girl was Miss Alegra Jean Fink. Mr. Stultz had for his best man, his brother, Richard Stultz.

Emmitsburg Couple Weds: Miss Dorothy Mari Topper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Topper, Emmitsburg, became the bride of James Donald Stoner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoner, Emmitsburg, at a wedding ceremony performed Thursday morning at 7 o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Emmitsburg. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Francis Dodd, of St. Joseph's College.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Katherine Topper. The best man was Austin Stoner, brother of the bridegroom.

In the sanctuary at the mass was the Rev. William Groeninger, pastor. Mr. Stoner is employed at St. Joseph's College as chauffeur.

Sons of Vets Hold Fete in Cemetery Here: The commemoration of the dedication of the National Cemetery and the delivery of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, held Saturday under the auspices of the Gettysburg Camp No. 112, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, brought many visitors to Gettysburg.

Returning to the post room after brief exercises in the cemetery, a program was rendered, consisting of singing "America," prayer by the Rev. E. L. Eslinger, the pledge to the flag by Dr. C. B. Stouffer acting as color bearer, brief address by Past Department Commander Jacob H. Wentzel and Commander-in-Chief Park F. Yingling, singing of "Star Spangled Banner," and the benediction by the Rev. Mr. Eslinger.

BOOKS AND THE QUIET LIFE

What a pronounced segment of life people lose by not early cultivating a love of books! Real people live in books—people of all sorts and from every quarter of the earth. They live in these books of theirs, many of them after centuries have long gone. A pattern of life is spread out in books.

There are books for every mood and taste—books to cheer and inspire, books to instruct and entertain. I feel alone in crowds of people, but not in crowds of books. In my library of thousands of books I never feel alone. From my shelves the great of this earth look out at me in a welcoming gaze.

And what a democratic sight is a room full of books! The greatest feels at home with the humblest. They stand side by side in their colorful bindings. I have arranged many of my books in groups. For example, all my nature books are in one place for I have an idea they like to be among their kind. Yet they do not object if they are placed otherwise, for books have no jealousies, no selfish pride. They never fight one another when placed by others.

All is stillness in a great library. It is the quiet life with books. All are finally companionable. I have a small row of brief books that are big in thoughts, near at hand, for they are so handy to slip into my pocket when I go on a journey, or when I feel a little lost and want to find my way back to myself. I like to run over my shelves and touch these books of mine with my fingers, in a sort of affectionate greeting. It makes me feel akin to them.

I have long been drawn to first editions, for they embody so much of the dreams and struggle, or poverty of the author. My first edition of Gissing's first book was written in a London cellar, when he was so poor that he had a race with hunger. My first edition of Stephen Crane's first book was in a yellow wrapper under the name of Johnston Smith. None bought it at its published price of 25 cents! Today it is looked upon as a classic.

In the wonderful world of books we may find peace, hope, and companionship. I once read of a lover of books who had it in his will that the book shelves of his library should be his covering in his grave.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Fearing Failure."

THE PUT-OFF LETTER

The letter which to write
I meant
A single three-cent stamp had sent,
But now, too late
Would be that simple cheery line
Because that good old friend
Of mine
No more could wait.

I needed but the time to think,
A sheet of paper, pen and ink,
But no! somehow
I put it off an hour to gain.
(An old excuse) and 'twould
be vain
To write it now.

That letter which you mean to send,
Sit down today and get it penned;
No longer wait.
Don't let the precious "now" go by.
Tomorrow, you may learn, as I,
May be too late.

Lull In White Case Probe
But There's No Indication
That End Is Yet In Sight

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators investigating the Harry Dexter White case called a temporary lull today but gave no sign of abandoning their efforts because of President Eisenhower's suggestion that the need for such inquiries may soon be ended.

Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.) said he did not know where or how far the inquiry by the internal security subcommittee he heads would lead. The group's next session was set for Monday afternoon, but there was no announcement whether witnesses would be heard then.

Jenner told newsmen that "for the first time we have been able to show" that FBI reports on suspected individuals "reached the hands of top officials," and he added it was impossible to say now what developments might follow.

Hopes Won't Be Issue

Some Republicans and most Democrats seconded Eisenhower's hope, expressed at his news conference yesterday, that security firings may so completely solve the problem of alleged Red infiltration of government that the issue will be forgotten by next year's congressional campaign.

Eisenhower said he was not suggesting current congressional probes be called off.

The President declined to comment directly on the case of White, who Atty. Gen. Brownell says was promoted in 1946 by former President Truman in the face of FBI reports which, Brownell asserted, tagged White as a Soviet spy.

While Jenner's subcommittee planned to go ahead with its hearings, the only ones by a congressional group thus far in the White case, the House Un-American Activities Committee showed signs of stepping out of the case.

Rep. Clardy (R-Mich.) announced in Lansing, Mich., yesterday that he saw no need now for a subcommittee to take testimony from Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina, who was Truman's secretary of state at the time of White's promotion. Clardy had been named to head the subcommittee.

Eisenhower's remarks may have the effect of applying the brakes to his Cabinet members on any further forays in the communism-in-government field.

But it was plainly evident that Republicans in Congress and elsewhere intended to keep the ball rolling up to election time next November.

Saturday noon, when the children and Dad are home from school and office, is a good time to serve an omelet. But make it something special by adding about three-quarters cup finely diced ham and a teaspoon of grated onion to a regular six-egg mixture. Heat a can of savory stewed tomatoes—such a worksaver!—to go with the omelet.

LOTS OF FOOD
AT REASONABLE PRICES SEEN FOR THANKSGIVING

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Nearly everything you'll need for a succulent Thanksgiving dinner will be in plentiful supply this year at reasonable prices, men in the food industry reported today.

The turkey crop this year is estimated at about 57 million birds, second in size only to last year's 60 million. Ready-to-cook turkeys will be more plentiful than ever.

In the meat department, pork and lamb will be trimmed in price in many areas for weekend shoppers. One chain planned to cut pork chop prices by six cents a pound in a number of its outlets. Legs of lamb will come down two to four cents a pound in some areas.

No Beef Trend

There was no definite trend in beef prices. The same sort of pricing situation will obtain for frying chickens.

Eggs which last week were selling on the wholesale markets at 12 cents a dozen below last year's level, increased in price this week.

Men in the produce markets offered cheerful news: Sweet potatoes, celery, parsley, onions and winter squash will be abundant and reasonably priced for Thanksgiving. There will be lots of cranberries, too. A good supply of chestnuts has arrived from Italy for marketing throughout the country.

Best Vegetable Buys

The best buys in vegetables will include cabbage, spinach, lettuce and potatoes. One item that will cost more is the tomato; supplies from California have dwindled and the season is just getting started in the South.

Oranges and grapefruit will cost more, produce men added. They picked apples as one of the best fruit buys and noted that Bosc, Bartlett and Comice pears offer good value.

SUICIDE IN CELL

HACKETTSTOWN, N. J. (AP)—Michael Tangi, 55, hanged himself in his jail cell yesterday less than two hours after he was arrested on a drunk and disorderly charge.

Police Chief Orville Cox found Tangi hanging from a bar in the ceiling of his wire cell. Tangi used his belt for a noose.

Boomerangs are traditionally weapons of Australian aborigines, but similar weapons are found in Africa, India and America.

CIO GOES AHEAD WITH DEMANDS
FOR T-H REPEAL

CLEVELAND (AP)—The CIO convention paid little heed today to Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell's advice to quit talking about scuttling the Taft-Hartley Act.

Instead, it pushed ahead with a resolution calling for outright repeal of what it called an "unfair and unjust" law.

CIO President Walter P. Reuther said the resolution, prepared well in advance of the new labor secretary's convention speech yesterday, would not be altered. There was no doubt that it would pass.

Only Mild Applause

Mitchell told the 700 delegates that an approach to labor legislation starting "from the point of realism" would "preclude further talk of repeal of the act."

If such an approach were taken, he said, the administration and Congress could "concentrate on those features of the act which are really dangerous to labor, really loaded, really unfair."

His speech—a careful statement of administration policy—drew only mild applause. It was Mitchell's first major address since he took over last month from Martin F. Durkin, who quit the Cabinet in a dispute with President Eisenhower over T-H law changes.

Pledged To Repeal

Dillsburg

DILLSBURG—John P. Wallace, Washington Twp. Justice of the Peace, is among the 33 York County magistrates pursuing a 24-week course in criminal law at the York court house.

Ralph Lefever, Dillsburg, has returned from a business trip to Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Pirman Nitchman and family who abandoned farming on Dillsburg R. 1, several weeks ago, have arrived at their new home in East Berlin. One daughter of the couple is office nurse for Dr. Joseph L. Esleman, East Berlin, while a younger daughter plans to begin work shortly as a nurse at the Church of the Brethren Home for elderly persons at Cross Keys.

Children of the Christian Endeavor group of the Franklintown UB Church who presented a recent musical program is connected with pledged the CIO to "devote all of its energies and resources" to seek the law's repeal. It accused the Eisenhower administration of not keeping its "solemn pledge to the American people to amend Taft-Hartley so as to make it a just, fair and decent law."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) headed today's speaker list. He said the people "look to President Eisenhower for leadership, but they'll have to look behind him to find it—and they won't like what they find."

"The heart of humanity is being ripped from government and replaced by worship of the almighty dollar," he said in a speech prepared for delivery.

Discovers Theft
When Car Heats Up

DALLAS (AP)—Bob Storey was driving to work when his new car began to heat up.

He pulled into a filling station and asked the attendant to see what was wrong. The man raised the hood.

"There isn't anything wrong," he said, "except that you need a radiator."

Someone had swiped the radiator during the night and relocked the hood.

CREW CUTS STUDIED

CHICAGO (AP)—The Master Barbers Assn. will vote on a proposal to charge extra for crew cuts. They say it's harder to give them, and, besides, the barber gets hair all over his shoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Weigle, Franklintown, recently entertained the Winners Class of the UB church.

Edwin Unger and S. E. Kimmel, Wellsboro, are among the York County magistrates taking the criminal law course at York court house weekly.

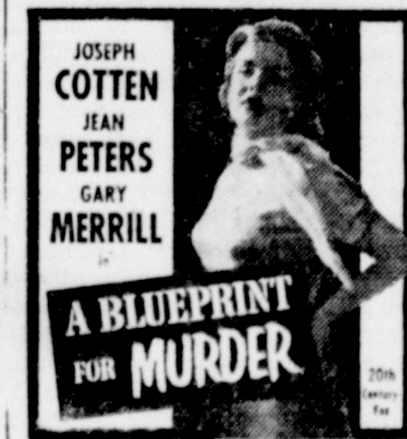

Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyd Nelson, near Franklintown, have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Gene Nelson and son, Williamsport.

Nine Seniors Will Play In Final Game Of Grid Career With Bullets Here Saturday

Nine seniors, including six first stringers, will be making their farewell appearance in Gettysburg College moleskins Saturday when the Bullets play host to Franklin and Marshall in the final game of the 1953 football campaign. Two others, forced to sit out the current season because of injuries, would have seen action this season and will be graduated in June.

Should Coach John Yovicsin's gridders get past the Diplomats, these performers will hang up their football togs with the distinction and honor of having played on the best team in Gettysburg history. A victory Saturday will give the Bullets, who haven't lost since dropping the season opener to Delaware, a record of eight wins and one defeat. The best previous season in the college's history was in 1949, when the Bullets, paced by the passing of Ross Sachs, rolled to seven triumphs, one tie, and one loss.

Squad Had 11 Seniors

Here are the Bullets who bid farewell to Gettysburg fans Saturday:

Player	Pos.	H.	W.	Hometown
Kenneth R. Bowman	T	5-11	205	Palmyra, Pa.
William F. Forbes	T	6-1	195	Conyngham, Pa.
Walter W. Hemberger	E	6-0	180	New York, N. Y.
Ronald A. Jacobi	E	6-2	197	Haddon Heights, N. J.
Ronald C. Miller	G	5-10	200	Harrisburg, Pa.
Samuel R. Mowery	C	5-11	167	New Cumberland, Pa.
Willis G. Pratt	G	5-10	170	Ashland, Pa.
James J. Rooney Jr.	T	6-0	210	Mahanoy City, Pa.
Alfred J. Saner	T	5-11	200	West New York, N. Y.
Joseph S. Ujohai	HB	5-10	155	Phoenixville, Pa.
Jay P. A. Williams	T	6-0	198	Harrisburg, Pa.

Two Were Injured

Bowman, Hemberger, Jacobi, Miller, Rooney and Ujohai all were first string performers this season, while Pratt, Saner and Williams saw plenty of action. Forbes, forced to retire from active playing ranks because of a kidney injury, rendered valuable service as an assistant coach. Mowery, who has played center, end, and defensive back in his Gettysburg football career, suffered an arm dislocation in pre-season practice scrimmage and had to sit out his senior season.

Here's what Coach Johnny Yovicsin has to say about the football talent he will lose after this season:

KEN BOWMAN—"Bowman is having his best season since coming to Gettysburg. He will be a big loss. Under the two platoon system he was strictly a defensive end. This year we switched him to tackle and he has turned in a fine job for us both on defense and offense. He is big and rugged and will be hard to replace."

BILL FORBES—"Forbes has rendered aid as an assistant coach both with the varsity and with Jim Lentz's freshman team. We were counting heavily on him to see a lot of action before the back injury sidelined him. During his playing years he was very good as a defensive guard and offensive tackle."

"Old Reliable"

WALT HEMBERGER—"We like to think of Hemberger as one of our old reliables. He's a very fine player, both offensively and defensively, and has meant a lot to the Gettysburg team for the past three years. He's made some spectacular catches at crucial moments and his loss is a tremendous one. He has been a good leader, both on and off the field, and has been an inspiration to the club."

RON JACOBI—"Jacobi is a good all around end. We will especially miss his punting. Last season he punted off and on, but this season he's carried the whole punting load. It always hurts to lose boys his size."

RON MILLER—"We call him 'Bull' Miller because of the work-horse job he gives us. Surely, Miller will go into the books as one of Gettysburg's greatest guards. We're losing a heck of a lot when Miller goes, and it will be a long, long time before another like him comes along. He's having his greatest season this year."

SAM MOWERY—"Though an arm injury put Mowery on the shelf, he has been very close to the team this year. He is a great competitor—one of the greatest competitors I've ever coached. He came to us as a center, then under the two platoon system, played end, and was terrific as a defensive halfback. He would have gone back to center this year."

Booted For Victories

BILL PRATT—"Because of the outlawing of the two-platoon system, Pratt has not seen much action this season, but he has contributed much to Gettysburg in his stay here. His extra point kicking was superb, and he won many a game for us with that foot of his. I suppose his greatest moments of glory came against Delaware last season, when he converted twice to give us a 14-13 win, and two seasons ago when he turned the trick three times to enable us to nip Albright 21-20."

JIM ROONEY—"Rooney probably has been one of the most underrated players on our team. Underrated by the fans, I mean. We coaches know how valuable he has been to us. He played offense two years ago, defense last season, and now is outstanding going both ways. He's a very good leader, and his jolly humor helps team spirit tremendously. He's one of the few players we've had from the coal regions, but they can send us more like him anytime."

AL SANER—"Saner has seen action most of the time as a defensive tackle. He's one of our first tackle replacements and can be depended on to do a fine job every time we send him into action. We hate to lose him. He's an example of the fine athletes and gentlemen that West New York has sent us."

Calls Ujohai "A Natural"

JOE UJOHAI—"Boys like Joe Ujohai come along only once in a lifetime. He is truly a coach's dream as a backfield performer and team leader. We all know how terrific he is on offense, and this season he has proved that he can play defense with the best of them. He's a natural, and football is second nature with him. His loss is a terrific one."

JAY WILLIAMS—"While not having played too much, Williams has been a letterman for three seasons. His attitude, on the playing field, on the practice field, and off the field is something to be admired. He has always given us an excellent performance when called upon to do so, and we hate to lose him."

ASK GOLFERS TO STOP USE OF BRITISH BALL

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States Golf Assn. today called upon its member clubs to help eliminate the distribution of the smaller-sized British golf ball in the United States.

Two years ago, the USA and the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, governing body of British golf, agreed upon a uniform code of playing rules and upon uniform club specifications. They could not, however, reach an agreement as to the size of the ball.

The USA specifications call for a ball weighing not more than 1.620 ounces, with a diameter of not less than 1.680 inches and an impact velocity of 250 feet per second. The British ball has the same weight, but a diameter of 1.620 inches and there is no specified impact velocity.

Britons prefer the small ball because of its wind-boring capacity, an important factor on British seaside courses. It also produces more distance. The slightly larger American ball sits up better on the turf and many players say it chips and putts better.

BESHORE LOSES TO BUCCERONI BY TKO IN 8TH

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Philadelphia's Dan Bucceroni, whose record now shows 28 knockouts in 48 starts, registered one of the technical variety when Referee Joe Stone waved aging Freddy Beshore of Los Angeles to the repair pit in the eighth round last night.

Favored Bucceroni, a ranking heavyweight contender who hopes to get a shot at champion Rocky Marciano next year, was in command all the way, but Beshore showed an amazing ability to sop up punishment.

A national audience of television fans saw Beshore blasted from corner to corner, but he kept wadding in as Bucceroni, 26, and possessing an edge of three inches in reach and five inches in height, slammed lefts and rights to his head. Bucceroni weighed 188½, Beshore 194.

There were no knockdowns in the fight, scheduled for 10 rounds. Beshore slipped in the first round. When the fight was stopped, after 2 minutes 41 seconds of the eighth round, the 31-year-old Beshore was bleeding from the nose and a cut over his left eye and his left side was reddened by glove burns. Bucceroni was unmarked.

The bout drew 5,000 fans at the Olympic Auditorium. The gross gate was $17,036.

Belgian Ice-Skating Instructor Is Killed

KITZINGEN, Germany (AP)—Si-mone de Ridder, 51-year-old Belgian ice-skating instructor and mother of an Olympic champion, died Wednesday of injuries suffered when she was thrown from a moving train.

Police sought a tall, thin man who was believed to have pushed her from an international train before dawn on Tuesday after robbing her.

The Kitzingen stationmaster told police that as the train rolled slowly through the yards he saw a woman clinging to a window ledge while a man tried to pry her grip loose.

The train conductor said he saw a tall, dark man run from a compartment and try to leap from the train. The conductor said he pulled the emergency cord and, as the train stopped, the man jumped off and fled into the darkness. Mrs. de Ridder was found along-side the tracks.

BULLETS BEAT FORT RITCHIE FIVE 74 TO 64

The Gettysburg College basketball team and the Gettysburg Lions both were winners in the Eddie Plank Memorial gymnasium Wednesday when a veteran Bullet five trimmed Fort Ritchie, 74-64, in a pre-season dress rehearsal attended by some 500 students and townspeople.

Proceeds from the Bullets' first exhibition tilt prior to its season opener with Hofstra, December 5, crossed the sponsoring Lions Club Charity Fund in the neighborhood of $85.

Although still far from peak physical and mechanical perfection the Gettysburg squad revealed to its followers just about what was expected—cool, calculated ball handling, a fast-breaking offense, and aggressive control of the boards.

While such old standbys as Johnny Habeeb, Joe Lang, and Bill Snyder between them contributed 53 points to the Bullet victory, Coach Henry T. Bream undoubtedly was more pleased with the rugged defensive showing of sophomore Dick Hockenbury, whose control of the backboards was a highlight of play.

Rally In Third Period
Fort Ritchie—feeling the loss of its ace center, Dan Bagley, former Notre Dame star and a 1951 All-American mention—dropped its first game in four outings.

The GI's scrapped to a surprising 15-11 first quarter lead, but fell behind by six points at halftime as the Gettysburg cagers wheel-balled the score to 33-27 in their behalf. The Bullets tallied 26 points in the third quarter to take a substantial 59-43 lead ten minutes to go and then turned aside a last-ditch Fort Ritchie bid in the closing moments to win by the 74 to 64 score.

Lang Tops Scorers

Of the seven Gettysburg players who broke into the scoring column, three hit double figures. The black-thatched Lang connected on eight field goals and three-out-of-the-four free throws to pace the point producers with 19 tallies. Habeeb, the Bullets' major offensive threat last year, countered 18 times and Snyder, 16.

Dave Whitney, a stoop-shouldered, dare-eyed negro youth formerly a member of the Harlem Globetrotters, missed only five shots during the evening and rang six straight foul conversions to pace the soldiers' attack with 18 points. Ted Panoplos, who earned his varsity "S" at Penn State as a member of the Nittany Lions' 1952 NCAA aggregation, scored 15 points.

The Bullets led their Maryland opponents in field goals, 28 to 24, and converted 18 out of 27 foul shots. Fort Ritchie hit on 16 of 23 charity throws.

Visitors Take Lead

Fort Ritchie jumped off to a 15-11 quartertime edge on the ability of Whitney to drop foul shots and several twin-pointers by Frank Blair and Tony Stromella. Jack Keller—one of three centers Coach Bream inserted into his lineup—Snyder, a product of the great Allentown High basketball factory, and Lang all tallied for the Bullets.

Shortly after the outset of the second period Fort Ritchie increased its lead to five points following Blair's foul toss, but Gettysburg came back on a brace of doublets by Habeeb and a crisp shot by Hockenbury to tie at 20-all. Blair, ex-Huron College cager, laid up two soft rebounds and a foul conversion to give his mates a 25-21 edge. However the Bullets came on strong in the remaining minutes of the period to outscore the soldiers, 22-12, and earn a half-time margin of 33 to 27.

Four minutes before intermission Whitney scored on an off-the-ear shot from side court to give Fort Ritchie a temporary 27-24 lead, but lay-ups by Snyder and Habeeb and five consecutive points by Bruce Mahon dissolved the GI edge.

Soldiers Rally
Hitting from all angles, Gettysburg outscored the soldiers, 26-16, in the third period and Coach Bream began looking to his bench. However, Fort Ritchie apparently still had a reserve store of ammunition.

With Whitney and Panoplos shouldering the scoring punch, the GI's steadily cut into the Bullets' lead until with three and one-half minutes of play only 9 points separated the two clubs.

Panoplos scored with a set from mid-court and the score was Gettysburg, 68, Fort Ritchie, 61. At that point the Bullets' Lang drove hard for an unstoppable lay-up and on the goal added a foul shot. Mahon dropped another charity toss and Joe Bierly, a sophomore who had just entered the game, concluded the scoring with an easy shot from in under the basket.

IRISH, MARYLAND HEAD SCRIBE'S GRID CHOICES

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP)—There were more upsets than bargains in the basement of a department store last weekend with the result that this department's average skidded to 787 for the season from its rather lofty spot of 801.

Although the outcomes of the Army-Penn., Alabama-Georgia Tech and Wisconsin-Illinois football games of last Saturday were picked correctly, those of 13 others were not. In all there were 39 correct selections. That's an average of .745.

The year's figures are now 311 correct, 81 incorrect.

Used To Be Trouble

With absolutely no idea where the incorrect ones are this time: Notre Dame over Iowa: There was a time in the past when Iowa always troubled Notre Dame. Maybe those days have returned. But it doesn't seem possible that the Hawkeyes, despite two good lines, will more than frighten Lattner, Worden and company.

Maryland over Alabama: Alabama was one of two teams to defeat Maryland last year. That's ancient history and won't happen again.

Picks UCLA, Illinois

UCLA over Southern California: This is your TV attraction of the day. These crosstown rivals will have at each other with a vengeance. The statistics show that Paul Cameron and his UCLA mates are slightly better than Aramis Dandoy and the rest of the Trojans.

Oklahoma over Nebraska: The Sooners are just too good.

Illinois over Northwestern: This game often finds the underdog the winner—but not when the favorite also is in line for the Rose Bowl trip.

Minnesota over Wisconsin: This will be a bruiser. Picking the Gophers in the belief that Paul Giel can't be stopped twice in a row.

Georgia Tech over Duke: The Engineers to squeak through.

Kentucky over Tennessee: The Kentucky Wildcats have scored only three touchdowns in eight years against Tennessee but this year they get revenge for the first time.

Others In East

Finishing the others in a hurry: East: Boston University over Temple, Columbia over Rutgers, Fordham over Holy Cross, Pittsburgh over Penn State, Dartmouth over Princeton, Syracuse over Villanova, Delaware over Bucknell, Lafayette over Lehigh, Yale over Harvard.

South: Auburn over Clemson, George Washington over Richmond, Davidson over the Citadel, North Carolina over Virginia, South Carolina over Wofford, Vanderbilt over Middle Tennessee, Wake Forest over Furman, West Virginia over North Carolina State, William & Mary over Washington & Lee, Mississippi Southern over Georgia.

Look Good In West

Midwest: Michigan State over Marquette, Missouri over Kansas, Ohio State over Michigan, Indiana over Purdue, Tulsa over Detroit.

Southwest: Rice over Texas Christian, Baylor over SMU, Texas Tech over Houston, Kansas State over Arizona, Louisiana State over Arkansas, Rice over Texas Christian.

DETOUR SIGNS REMOVED FROM SUNSHINE TRAIL

Detour signs were removed Tuesday and traffic moved unimpeded over the mountain section of Sunshine Trail for the first time in three years.

Reconstruction of a stretch of the Trail from near Tracey Corners to Fountindale was completed near noon Tuesday, whereupon detour signs were pushed to the side of the highway and traffic allowed to proceed.

Because of construction of the Raven Rock tunnel by the Department of Defense, the Trail unofficially was closed in September, 1950, and "officially" was marked closed January 30, 1951. This was to enable the federal government to use the Trail during the period of construction of the tunnel.

One job remaining to be done is the resurfacing of the detour route, known as Old Route 16. The federal government has agreed to pay for resurfacing of this route.

Highway Superintendent Merle E. Statler said today Franklin County received $5,262 for 7,700 feet of the detour route in this county. J. W. Kendlehart Jr., Adams County superintendent, said there are approximately two miles of the detour route in Adams County but refused Because most of the detour route is in Adams County, the county will do the entire resurfacing job from Fountindale to Monterey. It will have a heavy top.

COLD FRONT TO DISPEL SMOKE HAZE IN STATE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A cold front was due to move into Pennsylvania today and disperse a blanket of smoke or haze hovering over most of the state.

The U. S. Weather Bureau, describing the origin of the smoke-mist, termed it "typical high pressure area weather."

Wind accompanying the cold front due late today, said the Weather Bureau, would blow away the mist. The bureau explained that the phenomenon is caused by radiational cooling.

That condition in turn, the bureau said, occurs when upper air

Meager Clues In Identity Of Babe

DOVER, N. J. (AP)—Police worked with meager clues today in efforts to determine the identity of the body of a baby girl found in a locker at the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad station here.

The body of the baby, about two to three weeks old, was found yesterday. It was fully clothed, wrapped in a pink blanket and masses warmed by currents from the sun-heated earth act as a lid to hold the mists close to the ground. The air closer to the earth cools at night and condenses into mist.

Areas of the state blanketed by the mist—or smoke—or both—included Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Altoona, Williamsport, Philipsburg and Philadelphia.

WANT NEUTRALS AT CONFERENCE AS OBSERVERS

By SA SUMERLIN

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Communists said today they want neutral nations seated at the Korean peace conference only as observers. U.S. envoy Arthur Dean said the proposal "could offer a very fruitful basis for further negotiations."

Dean indicated the North Korean and Chinese diplomats have made a "prepared concession" and now appear to be awaiting further instructions.

There were growing indications reached on the thorny issue of inviting neutrals to the peace conference—biggest issue to be settled at the preliminary peace talks here.

Dean is spokesman for 16 United Nations and South Korea, all of which have voiced opposition to neutral participation in the peace conference.

But the U.S. envoy noted that these nations assumed the Reds wanted neutrals to have full participation.

Dean Plan Rejected

Dean already has said the United States would be willing to recommend inviting neutrals after a Korean settlement is reached placed in a shopping bag.

Police Sgt. Harold Ericson said the infant apparently had died of pneumonia before being placed in the locker sometime between Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

An autopsy showed the infant had pneumonia, and that there were no signs of bruises on the baby's body.

or if the peace talks bog down. The Reds rejected this.

Meanwhile, explanations to Korean and Chinese war prisoners who have refused to go home remained at a standstill and there were no signs that the Reds would resume the stalled interviews.

The Communists have refused to go along with new rules to speed up the program. Neither the Indian command, which oversees the efforts to woo the prisoners home, nor the Communists made any effort today to break the latest deadlock.

There have been no interviews since Monday.

The diplomats trying to arrange a Korean peace conference resume sessions tomorrow.

VISHINSKY ADDS H-BOMBS TO LIST

By OSGOOD CARUTHERS

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Andrei Y. Vishinsky has the floor in the U.N. today to present once again Russia's often-rejected peace package. This time he has added the hydrogen bomb to the list of mass destruction weapons he proposes should be banned immediately.

Vishinsky was due to push the Soviet omnibus peace proposal before the U.N. General Assembly's 60-nation Political Committee.

Western spokesmen have voiced their continued opposition to the Communist proposals and predicted the Assembly would reject them as it has overwhelmingly in the past.

IF IOWA STAYS UP, HAVE HOPES AGAINST IRISH

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP)—You don't hear anyone out here bragging that Iowa will lick Notre Dame in a football game Saturday—but many are saying they wouldn't be surprised if Iowa wins provided the Hawks play like they did against Minnesota.

Iowa fans, pleasantly pleased before the Minnesota game with a team that had a 4-3 record, really became hepped up when their favorites walloped the Gophers 27-0 last week with a fury unmatched perhaps since the championship days of 1921 and 1922.

The victory wasn't entirely unexpected but its decisiveness was. Iowa simply crumpled the Gophers and All American Paul Giel. Minnesota made a net of 81 yards and Giel, the Big Ten's total offense leader, got only 13 by rushing and 22 by passing.

Something Different But Notre Dame is something different. The undefeated Irish, ranked No. 1 in the nation, have linemen in sufficient numbers to perhaps more than match Iowa's hard-hitting men up front. Minnesota didn't and that was the difference—crunching blocks and tackles.

Iowa and Notre Dame have met every year since 1945 with Notre Dame winning six games. Two were ties. Before that, Iowa had beaten the Irish, three times—in 1921, 1939 and 1940.

PLAN NO ACTION IN ASSAULT ON SPORTS WRITER

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—No disciplinary action will be taken against trainer-driver Del Miller for an alleged attack on a sports writer, according to Lawrence B. Sheppard, president of the U. S. Trotting Assn.

The alleged attack took place in a Harrisburg, Pa., hotel lobby Nov. 12.

Sheppard's decision was sent in a telegram to Ed Binneweg, secretary of the U. S. Harness Writers Assn.

A writers association resolution calling for "prompt disciplinary action" against Miller was sent by Binneweg to the USTA office. The resolution said Jack Schultz, harness writer for Newsday, a Garden City, N. Y., newspaper, had allegedly suffered an "unwarranted physical attack."

No Authority To Act Schultz also is a vice president of the writers association.

However, Sheppard did grant Binneweg's request that the full board of directors of the USTA hear the details of the case from a representative of the writers association.

"Your telegram referred to our legal counsel," Sheppard's message read in part, "which advises me that our rules and by-laws do not cover altercations between members of this association and others in hotel lobbies removed from the grounds of a member track at which a race meeting is in progress."

Miller is now in Orlando, Fla. He said he had no comment. His home is at Meadow Lands, Pa.

GREENLEASE KIDNAP CASE UP TO JURORS

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The decision of death or life for the kidnap-killers of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease rested today with a federal jury of western Missouri farmers and businessmen.

The last words against or for Carl Austin Hall, the pampered son of a respectable small town Kansas family, and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, an alcoholic divorcee, had been said.

Now the jury, which has been hearing evidence since Monday, must decide whether they should die in the gas chamber as the government has demanded.

Both Pleaded Guilty

Under the Lindbergh kidnaping law on which they were tried, U.S. District Judge Albert L. Reeves must have a recommendation of death for the couple before he can assess the extreme penalty.

Both pleaded guilty at their arraignment.

U.S. Dist. Atty. Edward L. Scheufler wound up the government's plea for a death penalty recommendation for both yesterday by saying:

"If there was ever a case of a jury of free-born American citizens sitting in judgment where the life of one of their fellow men is at stake where the jury would be justified in taking a life, this is it."

Hall Takes Blame

In his summation Scheufler's voice rose as he termed the 41-year-old Mrs. Heady equally guilty with Hall.

Only a short time before Hall, who had sat downcast all day in the courtroom, had attempted to save the life of his mistress by taking full responsibility for the planning of the kidnap-slaying.

His move came as the defense ended its short parade of witnesses. Hall did not take the stand. Through his court-appointed attorney, Roy Dietrich of Kansas City, he advised the jury he wanted to assume full responsibility for the planning of the crime.

But Scheufler declared Mrs. Heady was as much mixed up in the crime as Hall despite his admission he had been planning a kidnaping for two years.

FINE HOPES FOR GOP HARMONY

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine hopes for harmony in the Republican party of Pennsylvania and says he expects Robert C. Duffy, new Philadelphia chairman, to follow the state administration's political leadership.

Duffy was named GOP head in Philadelphia last week when William J. Hamilton, a close friend of the governor, was ousted from that post. Duffy was backed by William F. Meade, Austin Meehan and Morton Witkin, Philadelphia Republican leaders, to replace Hamilton.

"I understand that is Meade's attitude also," the governor told reporters yesterday when asked if he expected Duffy to follow the administration leadership.

When asked if he believes Duffy will support any candidate for governor next year favored by Fine, the executive replied:

"I suppose that follows, I hope there may be harmony."

At the same time Fine said he has no candidate in mind for next year's gubernatorial race.

Fine held a news conference a short time before leaving for New York to fly today to Israel to dedicate a forest named in his honor.

The governor will return Dec. 5.

NAMED HEAD OF PASTORS' GROUP

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Rev. W. Lynn Crowding, Williamsport, is the new president of the Pastors' Conference of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches.

He was elected yesterday at the third annual conference to succeed the Rev. Jule Ayers, Wilkes-Barre. The 1954 conference will be held in Harrisburg Nov. 16-18.

Other officers named are: The Revs. W. Ward Smith, York; H. Glenn Carpenter, Johnstown; and Paul C. Shoemaker, Greenville, vice presidents; and James A. Clemens, Harrisburg, secretary.

The Rev. James H. Robinson, New York City, said in an address last night that everyone has some serious homework and self-inspection to do to achieve freedom for all men.

"We must begin by learning the elementary facts about the world we live in and it is urgent that we re-analyze the nature of communism and get a basic understanding of the nature and rise of modern nationalism in the underdeveloped areas."

Corn pone and Johnny cake are good breads to serve often when a member of the family is allergic to wheat flour.

Poached or soft- or hard-cooked eggs should be served on a reducing diet rather than eggs that are scrambled or fried in butter or margarine.

M'DEVIITT GETS BOOST IN PAY

HARRISBURG (AP)—The executive council of the AFL-Pennsylvania Federation of Labor not only refused to accept the resignation of James L. McDevitt as president but recommended an increase in his salary from $16,000 to $20,000 annually.

McDevitt, after the council's action yesterday, hinted to reporters he may resign his second post as director of the AFL Labor League for Political Action. That job also pays $20,000.

"You can see my position," McDevitt said. "The Pennsylvania Federation won't let me leave, so I must consider between now and January which job I should keep. It's impossible for me to keep up handling both."

McDevitt had submitted his resignation to the federation's executive council to become effective on Dec. 1 so that he could devote his entire time to the labor league. The council tabled his resignation until the state AFL convention next April in Pittsburgh.

The council also recommended a salary increase of Earl C. Bohr as secretary-treasurer from $13,000 to $16,000.

Lightning Bug Juice Aids Angler

ELLINGTON, Mo. (AP)—Ray Dusenberry claims the Clearwater Lake record for the biggest fish taken there on a fly rod. And he credits his success to the use of lightning bug juice.

His catches in three weeks included a 24-pound carp as well as three catfish, one weighing 30 pounds. All were caught on a dry fly. He ties the fly with rabbit fur and a chicken feather on a tiny minnow hook. But what makes it a killer, he says, is the lightning bug juice. He smears the bug juice on the fly to give it a luminous effect. He carries a pint bottle of lightning bugs because the fly needs a new treatment every 15 minutes.

The Caspian Sea is the world's largest lake says the National Geographic Society.

Wildcat Five Ready To Snarl After One-Year Cage Exile

By BILL HUDSON

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The University of Kentucky, a name long synonymous with collegiate basketball, appears hale and hearty for its return to competition after a one-year exile.

Its reappearance on the national cage scene brings forth two timely questions:

Is Kentucky loaded and ready to establish its customary lofty rating as most observers believe? Or did the year's enforced idleness dull the finely-honed play that has characterized this perennial Dixie power?

Adolph Rupp, whose 23-year record at Kentucky adds to 471 victories and 82 losses, frames the outlook in eight carefully chosen words:

"Usual" Representative

"The University will have its usual representative team."

Rupp declines to go on record further.

Should his veiled reference to the coming season bear any relation to past performances which include four national tournament titles in the last eight years, it's safe to assume the squad headed by Cliff Hagan and Frank Ramsey is capable of brewing considerable misery for its 24 opponents.

Some believe it could become one of the greatest outfits since the 1948 Kentucky team which shared the Olympic championship.

The schedule carries some big name opponents including an attractive tournament at Lexington before Christmas.

There is a feeling among many observers that few if any restraints will be exercised in Kentucky's comeback and the Wildcats will be aiming for as big a score as possible to help soothe the irritation of last year's layoff.

Two Factors Lacking

For every silver lining, though, there must be a cloud. Kentucky lacks (1) a tall performer of the goal tender variety who could assure added protection in defensive rebounding; (2) game experience for most of its varsity squadmen.

Kentucky was disciplined last season by the Southeastern Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association. The effect was suspension.

It could turn out to be a left-handed blessing because the year without collegiate competition gave Kentucky an extra season to prepare for the 1953-54 campaign.

Whereas the team usually practiced only two or three times weekly between games, it was able to work every day last season. There was no need to emphasize conditioning. This permitted more attention to fundamentals, concentrated work with the 10 cagers who are now sophomores and the development of new plays.

Close behind are six-foot-seven Phil Grawmeyer, a southpaw center; guards Linville Puckett and Jess Curry. These are six freshmen eligible for the varsity but they will not be used this season.

The invitational tournament at Memorial Coliseum, Kentucky's spacious home floor, on Dec. 21-22 includes Duke, UCLA, La Salle and the host team. In addition to its Southeastern Conference opponents, Kentucky meets Temple, Wake Forest, Minnesota, Xavier, DePaul and St. Louis in outside competition.

Bird, a hook shot specialist who plays either forward or center, is given the best chance to crash the starting lineup.

Tiny Brain Strokes Cause Of Trouble

NEW YORK (AP)—Little brain strokes are very common and perhaps the most important disease of the aged. Dr. Walter C. Alvarez writes in an editorial in Geriatrics magazine. And they're often overlooked by doctors, he warns.

"Obviously whenever a person past 50 who always was well before comes in complaining of not feeling fit, of having trouble forcing himself to work, or of having spells where there is a little uncertainty as to body balance, a really careful history should be taken to see if the trouble came suddenly on a certain day.

persons who are 50 years old is four out of 100. It jumps to six and a half persons out of a 100 at age 65.

Personal To Women With Nagging Backache

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Often, if asked, the patient will say, 'Yes, I thought then I was having a little stroke.'

And the patient's husband or wife may report a change in character coming on suddenly — irascibility, over-emotionalism, loss of memory, or decided and sudden aging.

RUNS BEST MINUS SHOES

MIAMI (AP)—The veteran race horse Brush Burn does his best running on grass—without shoes. The barefooted horse has scored three important wins on grass this year. Two were at Hialeah. The third was Washington Park's $50,000 Meadowland.

Two Girls Build Careers From Voices Of Notables

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Arts Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—On Jan. 30, 1952, two youngsters fresh out of Hunter College tried to push their way back-stage in a local auditorium to talk to the lecturer, the Welsh poet Dylan Thomas.

Like all celebrities, he was guarded by difficult ushers, solicitous officials and friends, and locked doors. So the girls couldn't crash all this interference—but they got a note to him and he sent back his phone number.

They lunched with him, he directed them to his agent, and they signed their first contract to record the voice of a literary light.

It was the start of one of the liveliest and most exciting new businesses in the field of culture. Since then, the girls, Barbara Cohen and Marianne Roney, have recorded, on 12-inch LPs, E. E. Cummings, Sean O'Casey, W. H. Auden, Eudora Welty, Ogden Nash, Katherine Anne Porter, Archibald MacLeish, Tennessee Williams, Thomas Mann in German, Colette in French, and others. Still many others are signed up for future recordings.

So it's a record business—but it's not music; and it's a literary business—but it isn't books.

A book has just been added, however, "Wrack at Townsend" by Sir Osbert Sitwell, to accompany Sitwell's disk of readings from it and other poems; the fledgling company, which calls itself Caedmon Publishers, plans other combinations of this sort.

The girls are unmarried, they're gether, Miss Cohen got a job with a small publisher, Miss Roney with a small record company. Meeting for lunch, they'd bemoan their dull jobs and uninteresting lives and wonder why they couldn't think up something to do that they'd like to do. They used all their $1,500 savings to make their first two records. In a year they produced 25,000 disks; for about a year and a half, the total is $0.00.

Canvassed Stores

Ready with their first saleable disks, they sat down at their phones and canvassed book and music stores all around town and thus took their first orders. Now they're so thriving they won't bother to sell disks singly. Records cost little more to make in small lots than in large, so they don't tie up capital—which the girls don't have—in large stocks.

They own their recording equipment, and record usually in a local studio, though Miss Roney went to Massachusetts for MacLeish's voice, and to California for Mann's. Generally the writer gives them several times as much material as will squeeze on one disk and they make their own selections.

PRODUCTION OF EGGS SET NEW OCTOBER MARK

HARRISBURG (AP)—The seasonal decline in milk production on Pennsylvania farms continued in October when output totaled 454 million pounds or 3 million less than in September, a federal-state survey showed today.

At the same time, a new egg production record for the month of October was set on Keystone State farms as the total for the month zoomed to 309 million.

The State Agriculture Department reported that the October milk flow was one million pounds less than for the same month last year although the number of milk cows on farms was 22,000 higher this October.

The estimated number of dairy cows in Pennsylvania during October was 928,000 compared with 926,000 during September and 906,000 for October of last year.

The October egg production record was set with fewer layers than the commonwealth had during the same period last year.

Layers in flocks averaged a record 142 eggs per bird during October compared with 135.9 in September and 135.2 for October last year, the federal-state survey showed.

The number of layers totaled 21,780,000 compared with 21,800,000 a year previous.

Pennsylvania egg production for the first 10 months of this year now totals 3,206,000,000 compared with 3,206,000,000 for the same period in 1952 and 2,341,000,000 for the 10-year average.

New Sulpha Drug Is Well Received

NEW YORK (AP)—A newer sulfa drug, sulfisoxazole or gantrisin, looks best for routine hospital use against a variety of infections, says Dr. Ellard M. Yow of Baylor University College of Medicine. Describing its use on 1,000 patients over a three-year period, he says it is as effective as sulfadiazine, and patients do not need to drink large amounts of fluids or alkalies to avoid reactions caused by earlier sulfa drugs. Laboratory tests are not needed to check for adverse effects on the blood, as happens with some earlier sulfa drugs, he writes in American Practitioner.

WASHINGTON SOCIAL WHIRL VERY COSTLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Many pretty buds will be stealing the limelight from their prominent papas and mamas — and flattening the family purse — when they make their bows to Washington society this season.

The most exclusive affair will be at Christmas time, when some 20 daughters of the real, old Washington families will be presented to their parents' friends at the Washington Debutante Ball at the swank Sulgrave Club. This is a rigidly proper presentation, co-operatively arranged and financed by the parents, some of whom feel they couldn't swing a coming-out on their own at $5,000 or more a party. At that, it will cost Dad a pretty penny.

An earlier event is the Debutante Cotillion and Thanksgiving Ball at the Shoreham, which local society editors describe as a "wide-open, more-the-merrier" shindig. It's arranged by Miss Mary-Stuart Montague Price, daughter of a naval officer who got into the business of party-planning by helping to plan benefits. Parents pay Miss Price to "introduce" their daughters and she turns part of the proceeds over to the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund.

Pleased With Plan
Parents and Debs seem to be just as pleased with the Price Plan as they would be with any other, and it's a lot easier than going it alone.

However, a score of large teas and receptions in private homes and clubs are looming up. Many of these are being arranged by another party planner, Mrs. Kurt Hetzel, wife of a concert pianist and conductor, who leads a busy social life of her own. She says her parties are very simple, with never more than 400 guests, seldom any out-of-town orchestras or florists and "everyone beautifully behaved."

Among this year's debutantes are Cynthia and Mollie Makins, attractive twin daughters of the British Ambassador and Lady Makins, who are expected to be presented at the Thanksgiving ball will be Patricia Ann, 17, the talented and pretty blonde daughter of Mrs. Ivy B. Priest, U.S. Treasurer, and Roy F. Priest of Bountiful, Utah. She's now attending high school in nearby Arlington, Va.

MANY CHANGES IN PROSPECTING

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The U.S. Geological Survey is prospecting in the Pacific Northwest.

But this operation is a far cry from the grizzled prospectors who once scoured the sage brush of eastern Oregon — these experts and their methods reflect the atomic age.

Today's prospectors use a twin-engine DC-3 plane and radiation equipment developed by the Atomic Energy Commission. They are looking for uranium and other radioactive elements that might be locked beneath the barren wastes.

Parke D. Snively Jr., supervising geologist for the agency's fuels branch, lead the flights over ground where radioactive samples are reported found.

Radiation Detected
The plane skims over the area flying at about 250 feet. Inside an instrument known as a scintillation counter registers any gamma radiation from below.

The counter, which utilizes silver iodide crystals, is more sensitive than the better known Geiger counter, Snively said. It is owned by the AEC and some of the details of its operation are secret.

Results of the survey, which Snively described as preliminary, will be reported from Washington, D. C.

The plane also is equipped with the better known magnetometer—used to aid in the search for oil, gas and iron ore.

Measures Magnetism
It is a bomb shaped device about four feet long which is lowered on a cable from the flying plane. It picks up, and recording instruments inside the plane continuously measure, the magnetic intensity of rocks exposed on the ground.

This gives geologists an idea of the underground strata structure and aids in determining whether the area might be favorable for oil exploration.

The magnetometer is lowered about 100 feet on a bronze cable while the plane cruises at about 500 feet at a speed of 140 miles an hour.

Results of the magnetic surveys of the western Oregon coastal area are to be available for public inspection sometime next winter.

Manager's Mistake Wins Ball Game

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—This is about a mistake that turned into a bit of good fortune and won a ball game.

Lincoln was playing Pueblo in a Western League game when a Lincoln outfielder was injured. Manager Walt Linden sent in a sub to run for the injured man but the sub was waved off the field. Linden had forgotten to list him on the pre-game roster. So pitcher Andy Bush was pressed into duty.

Bush, making his first appearance as an outfielder, made two nice catches. Then he hit a homer to win the game.
